

Button states stands for true if the button is pressed, and stands for false if not pressed. CCS retrieves button states via dashboard. Timer updates Cruise Control System with the information retrieved from sensors within every pulse. Cruise Control System retrieves value of the throttle through the actuator. Only accelerator pedal and actuator can directly control the throttle